

REPUBLICANS WILL MAKE ACTIVE FIGHT

State Central Committee Issues Plain
Instructions to Voters.

DATES MADE FOR SPEAKING

The Entire State Will Be Covered and Every Effort Made to Get Out Large
Vote—Candidates Are Men of High Standing.

There is no doubt that the Republicans of Florida will exercise every effort to poll the full strength of the party in this State at the November election. Hon. H. S. Chubb, chairman of the State Central Committee, has had printed and mailed throughout the different counties a circular giving full information to voters as to how to qualify to vote.

This circular also contains the precise information which individual voters require in order that there may be no confusion on election day, or no votes lost on account of the legal oversight of a voter actually entitled to vote. A brief resume of what each party stands for, and the Republican idea of it, is also given.

In regard to the Republican ticket, both national and State, congratulations to the Republicans of the nation are extended, while high tribute in particular is paid to the Republican leaders in Florida who go to make up the State Republican ticket. The circular points out that they are all of high standing in their several communities, and all of them men who have attained success in their several undertakings in life.

For the benefit of those who have not given the Republican State ticket very much attention, it is given here:

For Governor, John M. Cheney, Orlando; for Comptroller, P. L. Skipper, Lakeland; for Treasurer, L. E. Webster, Gainesville; for Secretary of State, John F. Horr, Key West; for Attorney-General, Fred C. Cubberly, Cedar Key; for Superintendent of Public Instruction, George W. Holmes, Sharps; for Commissioner of Agriculture, J. F. Stunkel, Leesburg; for Railroad Commissioner, S. W. Rowley, San Mateo; for Judges of the Supreme Court, E. Hly, DeLand, Fred W. Marsh, Pensacola.

The Republican Congressional and National Electors' ticket is as follows:

Republican Electors—Z. T. Bielby, DeLand; C. H. Stewart, Melbourne; J. T. Carnell, Ormond; H. W. Bishop, Eustis; C. G. Barlin, Carrabelle.

Congress, First District—George W. Allen, Key West; Second District, William R. O'Neal, Orlando; Third District, William H. Northrup, Pensacola.

The officers of the Republican State Central Committee are Henry S. Chubb, chairman, Gainesville; James N. Coombs, Apalachicola, member of the Republican National Committee; Joseph E. Lee, secretary, Jacksonville.

The following dates have been made for the Republican candidates to address the people:

Palatka, Wednesday, September 23; St. Augustine, Thursday, September 24; Daytona, Friday, September 25; West Palm Beach, Saturday, September 26; Miami, Monday, September 28; Titusville, Tuesday, September 29; DeLand, Wednesday, September 30; Jacksonville, Thursday, October 1; Fernandina, Friday, October 2; Lake City, Monday, October 5; Jasper, Tuesday, October 6; Pensacola, Thursday, October 8; DeFuniak Springs, Friday, October 9; Chipley, Saturday, October 10; Apalachicola, Monday, October 12; Carrabelle, Tuesday, 10 a. m., October 13; Gainesville, Wednesday, October 14; St. Petersburg, Monday, October 19; Manatee, Tuesday, October 20; Lakeland, Wednesday, October 21; Tampa, Thursday, October 22; Key West, Friday, October 23; Orlando, Tuesday, October 27; Bartow, Wednesday, October 28; Arcadia, Thursday, October 29; Sanford, Friday, October 30; Eustis, Saturday, October 31.

The large and attractive posters advertising these dates for speaking are now being mailed to the various county committeemen and each election district will be liberally covered with them, and no effort spared to reach every voter in the State.

The management of the Republican campaign in Florida is in the hands of capable men, who know "a thing or two" about politics, and there may be some surprises in store for the Democrats if the latter do not "watch their corks." Especially is this true of the third district, where Kehoe and Mays, both Democrats, will probably be on the ticket for Congress, while the Republicans will line up solidly for W. H. Northrup.

ALACHUA ITEMS.

(From The Alachua News.)

Mrs. R. A. Caswell left Wednesday for Live Oak, where she will visit her sister for several days.

Miss Eva Powell has been confined to her bed for the last several days with fever.

Col. F. Y. Smith made a flying trip to Gainesville Tuesday in his Reo. Flying is the word, as he returned in the record-breaking time of fifty minutes.

Dr. J. L. Cloud was called to Brevard, N. C., by a telegram from Mrs. Cloud stating that the baby was very ill. We trust our friend Doctor found his little boy much improved.

Miss Murray Cellon, after a very pleasant if short stay with her friend, Miss Margaret Olmstead, left for Gainesville to visit other friends, who no doubt were anxious to see her once again with them.

We regret very much to announce the long illness of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ellis' sweet little baby. Her condition for the last few days has been such as to cause great anxiety to the loving parents.

W. H. Traxler of Traxler has purchased from the First National Bank the very desirable lot joining Berry Brother's new drug store, for a high consideration. We understand Mr. Traxler will at once commence the erection of a business house.

J. S. Fagan has sold his home to a gentleman from Georgia, a Mr. Sparkman, who will soon move into his premises. The News welcomes the new addition to the town. We have been informed that Mr. Fagan will soon begin the building of a handsome residence upon one of his city lots.

Mr. Walter Sealey returned Tuesday from New York and other Eastern points, where he made large purchases for his several distributing stores. He also visited Niagara Falls, and it goes without saying that he was greatly impressed with the magnitude of the sight. While in New York he and some others of the party had some very fine tin-types taken, presumably at Coney Island, and Mr. Sealey can be seen trying to guide a high-power auto car.

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT WORTHINGTON

Deputy Sheriff Walker and J. H. M.
Kirby the Participants.

NO ONE WAS HURT, HOWEVER

The Men Exchanged Two Shots at Each Other, When Friends Intervened,
Preventing Further Trouble.
The Result of Old Grudge.

Information reached this city Saturday of a shooting affray, which occurred at Worthington Springs Thursday between Deputy Sheriff I. C. Walker of this city and J. H. M. Kirby of Newberry.

It seems that there is an old grudge between the men, and that when they met at Worthington they decided to shoot it out. They were at a point between the postoffice and the hotel when the shooting took place, being about one hundred and fifty feet apart. Mr. Kirby used a shotgun while Deputy Sheriff Walker used a pistol, two shots being fired by each party, but none of the shots did any serious damage. At this point friends intervened, preventing further trouble. The bullets from the pistol lodged in the postoffice, while the charge from the shotgun struck the hotel.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to LeGrande, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well-known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said: 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into LeGrande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into LeGrande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." Cold after cold, cough after cough. One cold no sooner cured than another one comes. It's a bad habit, this taking-cold habit. What you want is a medicine that will break up this habit, heal inflamed membranes, strengthen weak tissues. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

THERE ARE TWENTY-FOUR HOURS IN EACH DAY

We are earning (net—after paying all expenses and taxes) about $50.00 per day—or a little over $2.00 per hour—$760 hours in the year. We do not make this statement with any egotism at all—just want to say we owe this success to our customers—our friends. Our regular Banking Hours are from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m., but we earn just as much during the next six hours following, as we do during our Banking Hours; and if we can, serve our customers after hours.
